

Horvitz & Levy Joins Ford Motor Company's Legal Alliance for Women in a Global Day of Service

Worldwide Effort Brings Together Volunteers from the Legal Profession to Support More Than 80 Community-Based Organizations

LOS ANGELES, CA , Sept. 21, 2018 – Joining volunteers around the world, several Horvitz & Levy employees will take part in the inaugural Global Day of Service, a worldwide initiative spearheaded by Ford Motor Company's Legal Alliance for Women (LAW), the company's professional organization focused of women in the legal practice. The coordinated global effort will assist organizations supporting the empowerment and well-being of women and girls in their respective communities. Horvitz & Levy is among more than 90 law firms around the world partnering with LAW to volunteer time and perform pro bono work on a day of community service scheduled for September 27th.

Horvitz & Levy is joining the Global Day of Service in Los Angeles and will be volunteering to assist the Downtown Women's Center. Emily V. Cuatto, senior associate and member of the firm's recruiting committee, and Melissa Edelson, appellate fellow, from Horvitz & Levy will assist in the preparation of bagged lunches and clean kits.

"We deeply appreciate Ford's commitment to promoting women in the legal profession, and are excited and honored to participate in the inaugural Global Day of Service to bring supportive services to women throughout our community," said Ms. Cuatto.

Ford LAW and partner's Global Day of Service kicked off this year with a singular vision to help community organizations that are assisting women and girls through educational, empowerment and support programs. Bringing together volunteers from more than eight countries, this day of service is a collective effort to give back to the communities Ford and its partners operate in.

"Through this day of service, we are aiming to marshal the collective efforts of our partners in the legal profession around world to give back to the community," said Beth Rose, assistant general counsel at Ford Motor Company and chairperson of Ford's Legal Alliance for Women. "The passion we share in advocating for and serving our communities extends beyond this one day. It is part of who we are as individuals and drives our community service year round."
