

Horvitz & Levy Names Shane H. McKenzie as Leadership Council on Legal Diversity 2018 Fellow

LOS ANGELES, CA, February 28, 2018... Horvitz & Levy LLP, the country's largest boutique law firm dedicated to civil appeals and trial strategy consulting, has selected associate Shane H. McKenzie to be a member of the 2018 class of Fellows, participating in a landmark program created by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) to identify, train, and advance the next generation of leaders in the legal profession.

"LCLD is an important organization our firm has been honored to support and Shane's selection as a 2018 Fellow allows us to continue our collaboration with enthusiasm and passion," said Jason R. Litt, a member of the firm's management committee and firm member liaison with LCLD. "Shane joins a select group of experienced attorneys from diverse backgrounds who are committed to promoting diversity and inclusion within the legal industry."

According to LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr., the LCLD Fellows Program offers participants "a year-long, in-depth program devoted to relationship-building, in-person training, peer-group projects, and extensive contact with LCLD's top leadership and the best teachers in the business."

About LCLD

Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization of more than 285 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are personally committed to creating a more diverse and inclusive legal profession. The LCLD Fellows Program, which has trained more than a thousand mid-career attorneys since 2011, is one of LCLD's most important initiatives. For more information, visit www.lclldnet.org.
